ANDREW DODDS NAMED ONE OF THE FINANCIAL INDUSTRY'S TOP ADVISORS BY FINANCIAL TIMES

Englewood, CO — March 31, 2017 – Andrew Dodds, an independent financial advisor at Dodds Wealth Management Group in Englewood, CO, has been recognized by Financial Times, a leading financial industry publication, as one of the 2017 Top 400 Financial Advisors nationwide. The list is produced by Financial Times in collaboration with Ignites Research, a subsidiary of Financial Times.

The top advisors were chosen based on several criteria, including years of experience, total assets served, asset growth and industry compliance records. The average advisor recognized in this year's Top 400 list manages $1.7 billion in client assets, according to Financial Times.

"On behalf of LPL, I congratulate Andrew on being named to the Financial Times Top 400 list," said Andy Kalbaugh, LPL managing director and divisional president, National Sales and Consulting. "We are proud of the commitment Andrew and his team has made to his clients by taking the time to understand their unique financial goals and providing objective financial advice that helps them work toward those goals. LPL is honored to partner with Andrew and we thank him for the work he does to create value with clients every day."

Andrew and his team has been providing independent financial planning services to more than 300 clients in the Colorado area for over 25 years. Dodds provides a full range of financial services, including retirement and financial planning, individual money management, individual stocks and bonds, mutual funds, annuities and more.

Dodds is an LPL Financial-affiliated advisor. LPL is a leader in the retail financial advice market and provides resources, tools and technology that support advisors in the delivery of personal, objective financial advice to help clients work toward their financial goals.
